

In which book questions:

1. In which book is a character sent to the U.S. to live with their aunt and uncle?

Answer: Tagging Freedom by Rhonda Rhoumani

2. In which book does a student help introduce a bill to make Holocaust and genocide education required in schools?

Answer: Remember My Story by Claire Sarnowski and Sarah Durand

3. In which book does a character feel overwhelmed by academic comparison to others?

Answer: Uprooted: A Memoir About What Happens When Your Family Moves Back by Ruth Chan (pg. 176)

4. In which book does a father reveal he is dating somebody new during a family vacation?

Answer: An Occasionally Happy Family by Cliff Burke

5. In which book does a character live in a fictional village called Moormanali?

Answer: Asha and the Spirit Bird by Jasbinder Bilan

Content questions:

1. In Tagging Freedom, what club does Samira join?

Answer: Spirit Squad (pg. 9)

2. In Ellen Outside the Lines, what festival is mentioned during the character's time in Spain?

Answer: La Mercè Festival (pg. 102)

3. In The Eyes and the Impossible, what is the name of Johannes' only sibling taken to a "human lair" by their mother?

Answer: Leonard (pg. 19)

4. In Projekt 1065: A Novel of World War II, what was Michael wearing when he was having dinner with the S.S.?

Answer: A Hitler Youth uniform. (pg. 11)

5. In A Dictionary of Scoundrels, which Swift relative wears a wig that keeps slipping sideways during the reunion?

Answer: Uncle Maelstrom (pg. 34)